

Dutch Minister slams Arab Nations over the controversial remarks on Prophet Mohammad.

The matter of the controversial statement of former BJP spokesperson Nupur Sharma on Prophet Mohammad PBUH has spread all over the world. Many Arab and Islamic countries condemned this statement and registered protests in front of India. But there is a rise of global section supporting Nupur Sharma over her remarks. Recent one includes a Dutch MP, Gert Wilders, openly supporting Nupur Sharma. Wilders said that instead of apologizing for her statements, we should defend her.

Gert Wilders is considered the world's outspoken voice against Islamic terrorism. Gert Wilders of the Netherlands Party for Freedom had earlier asked the Modi government not to bow down to Arab countries while standing in favor of Nupur. Gert had said that it is a joke that Arab and Islamic countries are furious for telling the genuine truth about the Prophet. He wrote that the hypocrites should not be listened to. Gert also wrote that there is neither democracy, no rule of law, nor freedom in Islamic countries.

He said that Islamic and Arab countries have frequent human rights violations, and they persecute minorities. He tweeted that Nupur Sharma has spoken the truth about Prophet Mohammad, so why should India apologize? After this statement of Gert Wilders, many people raised their voices in support of him and Nupur.

Death threats started coming in a row.

Previously Nupur Sharma herself and now, The Dutch MP is receiving death threats for declaring to stand with the former BJP spokesperson. Gert Wilders has given this information on his Twitter handle. Gert wrote to the people who gave death threats, saying that I am now getting all the threats of murder. This is the result of the truth that Nupur Sharma said. I want to tell those who threatened me that you do not have any culture. We stand for truth and freedom.

'We should support Nupur Sharma'

He said, "I believe we should support Nupur Sharma for showing the courage and speaking the truth. We should criticize those countries for their horrible track record on human rights. Wilders was asked what kind of threats he is getting and where are these threats coming from? He said, 'For the last few days, I have been receiving death threats from Pakistan, India, and other Islamic countries to defend Nupur Sharma on this issue. But I lost my personal freedom a long ago when I made a documentary on the Quran. Then Al-Qaeda and Pakistani Taliban issued fatwas against me. My wife and I left the house long ago, and we never returned.'"

'The court has the right to decide right and wrong of Indians'

He asked Arab and Islamic countries to look at themselves in the mirror before giving their opinion on India or any other country. He added "These countries attacking India today place Sharia law above democracy and human rights. And like I said, you will be tortured and jailed if you are a minority in these countries. These are the most intolerant countries with an abysmal human rights track record.

Only Indian courts have the power to decide whether their citizens are right or wrong, not any other country. Stand up for yourself, stand up for your values.”

Let us inform you that Nupur had commented in a TV debate about the marriage of the Prophet and his wife, Bibi Ayesha. After which, the BJP suspended Nupur from the party after creating a stir in Arab countries.

Kerala Governor Arif Mohammed's comment on the issue

Arif Mohammed Khan, the governor of Kerala, said, it is not important to apologize to Qatar and added that PM Modi and his team are working towards an inclusive and prosperous India. "Our tradition is not tolerance, but respect and acceptance for all traditions. We respect and accept all traditions as true. India's culture does not consider anybody as others.”

Arif Mohammed Khan also said, “We should pay more attention to what the Prime Minister is repeatedly saying and what the RSS chief is repeatedly saying — that we want our tradition of inclusiveness to be strengthened. Nobody is to be excluded. That is our cultural heritage. We need to strengthen that.”

The double standard of the Islamic Arab Nations

There are many such places in the world where Muslims are being persecuted, but it is the hypocrisy of Arab countries that they are ignoring this.

Almost every Islamic country, including Qatar, does business with China.

The news that the Muslims of Xinjiang are forced to eat pork and drink alcohol does not bother them at all. There's no boycott China campaign for that, No country summons Chinese ambassadors. But it is astonishing that when a woman from India makes a remark on the Prophet, it puts Islam in danger and wakes up the spirit of these Islamic countries.

China demolishes mosques to build shopping malls. Even many cases have come to the forefront where a mosque was demolished to build a toilet, but at that time, no one knows where these bombastic countries become busy.

Arab countries, including the GCC members, are well aware of the USA's declining global role and diminishing hegemony in the Persian Gulf. They know that any criticism of China over its cruel treatment of Uighur Muslims will come with a heavy price. Perhaps, then their business matters more than their propaganda.
